LEGENDS NEVER DIE

good Vibes

THAT MEGAWATT SMILE!

TRAVIS ALWAYS HAD A SMILE ON HIS FACE- HE WAS SUCH A CALMING PERSON TO BE AROUND.
YOU COULDN'T HELP BUT LOVE HIM.

I NEVER HAD A CONVERSATION WITH HIM
WHERE WE DIDN'T LAUGH.

WHAT I LOVED - AND WILL MISS
THE MOST - ARE THE MEANINGFUL TALKS OVER DINNER AT SOME GREAT RESTAURANT IN WHATEVER CITY WE WERE IN.

A work trip to Vegas where we packed in an event, the rides at the top of the Stratosphere, a Jerry Seinfeld show, and Fremont Street - all in one day!
Travis packed so much life into his days and let us in on the fun.
It is a trait I try to emulate.

I COULD ALWAYS COUNT ON TRAVIS TO BRING A BONANZA OF CREATIVITY TO EVERYTHING WE DID, WHICH ELEVATED OUR WORK AND CREATED SOME WOW MOMENTS FOR CLIENTS.
THE DUDE WAS CHARMING AND CLIENTS LOVED HIM.

I loved his easy-going attitude that brought just the right counter-balance to other types of personalities at CN. I will truly miss the LITTLE BIRD SONGS & TRILLS THAT HE'D WHISTLE WHILE WORKING.

Travis was TALENTED on so many levels, but his ability to create & draw models in real-time, in front of an audience, was super impressive. He always made our clients feel heard by the way he captured their conversations.

There were times where I felt I was on an island...Travis always went out of his way to let me know that he supported my thinking. His loyalty and support as a friend was UNWAVERING.

WORKING WITH HIM ON MY FIRST SESSION, I SAW HOW EASILY HE MANAGED & NAVIGATED THE DAY AND THE PEOPLE AROUND HIM. HE WAS FUNNY, SELF-EFFACING, CHARMING, & SHARP: AND HE CONVEYED ALL OF THAT ALMOST INSTANTLY AFTER MEETING HIM.

THE DAY THAT I ASKED HIM TO BECOME AN EMPLOYEE AT COLLECTIVE NEXT.

MY FAVORITE MEMORY WITH TRAVIS WAS GOING TO A CONCERT AT RED ROCKS AFTER AN EVENT IN COLORADO. IT WAS AN AMAZING EXPERIENCE IN A GORGEOUS PLACE WITH GOOD FRIENDS.

His easy-going competence and our shared appreciation of The Grateful Dead.

One time, he and I went to go see a concert (what else) out in a remote location, and we had to take a 45-minute cab ride back to where we were staying. Travis fell asleep in the cab, but throughout the ride, he kept laughing in his sleep. There would be a belly laugh, followed by a giggle, followed by another laugh...it went on for the whole ride. When we finally got back to our hotel, I woke him up and asked him what he had been laughing about the whole time. He said, "I have no idea, but I'm sure it made me happy." It made me happy too. I'll miss his laugh.

Working with Travis always reminded me to BREATHE...he would chill out everyone in the room; making everyone feel relaxed, but focused.

TRAV HAD A WAY OF CALMING NERVES & MAKING EVERYONE FEEL AT EASE WITH THAT SMILE. I'D BE RUNNING AROUND THE OFFICE TRYING TO GET THINGS RUSHED FOR A CLIENT AND HE WOULD JUST COME OVER WITH A SMILE AND A HUG FOR ME.

HIS KINDNESS.
HIS FREE SPIRIT.
HIS WAY OF MAKING
EVERYONE AROUND HIM
COMFORTABLE NO MATTER
THE SITUATION.

HE'D ALWAYS TAKE US ON ADVENTURES

WHEN WE WERE IN COLORADO. HE HAS A GOOFY SMILE AND COULD CONVINCE ANYONE TO GO OUT AND SING KARAOKE WITH HIM, GO TO A CONCERT, OR CRASH SOME EVENT HE FOUND ONLINE...

He not only added his POSITIVITY

to any situation, he also added excellent MUSIC.

For one series of events, a client included special recognition of Travis as the program
"DJ" because the participants had been so excited about the music he had played throughout their experience!

HIS AWESOME SPIRIT, & HIS WICKED SENSE OF HUMOR.
ON TOP OF BEING JUST A REALLY GOOD GUY.

I LOVED HIS EASY-GOING ADVENTUROUS SPIRIT.

Travis shared a story about his newborn,
& was so vulnerable and honest as he did.
It was a side of him I'd never seen-so serious and thoughtful.
I realized how much being a father had changed him that night.

I have this memory of seeing Travis while driving in Somerville; he and Doug (the dog) were skateboarding around town and everything just looked right.

REGGAE NIGHTS AT DIVE BARS IN SOMERVILLE,
DOUG THE DOG! - THE BEST DOG!
TRAVIS TAUGHT ME HOW TO PLAY
ROULETTE IN VEGAS!

Trav was unabashedly enthusiastic about the things he loved: SNOWBOARDING, MUSIC, CONRAD, MEREDITH. He also had a great, dry wit, and lovely, warm smile.

TRAV THE RAD DAD:
SEEING HIM WITH CONRAD. THE JOY AND LOVE BETWEEN THE TWO OF THEM WAS BEAUTIFUL TO WITNESS

MY FAVORITE MEMORY OF TRAVIS IS WHEN HE TOLD ME ABOUT CONRAD AND HOW HIS HEART WAS SO FULL OF LOVE HE COULDN'T IMAGINE EVER BEING ABLE TO LOVE ANYONE AS MUCH.

I remember seeing the JOY at the CN holiday party when Travis and Meredith were recently engaged. Travis was beaming with love and pride in his future bride.

EVERY TIME WE GOT TO SHARE SOME TURNS DOWN
THE MOUNTAIN.

I love that he was kind and made everyone feel safe and at-home in his company. He had something positive to say about everyone and was always up for anything.

HIS POSITIVE SPIRIT AND ENERGY. HIS EASY-GOING ATTITUDE, HIS EMBRACE OF ADVENTURE.

I ONCE WENT TO COLORADO WITH TRAVIS. AMONG OTHER THINGS, HE TAUGHT ME THAT COLORADO HAS AMAZING
MEXICAN FOOD, A PASSION
WE SHARE!

The first time I met Travis, we talked about burritos for 20 minutes. It was the perfect start to our friendship.

HE'D ALWAYS TRY AND CONVINCE YOU TO ADD GREEN
CHILIES TO EVERYTHING.

I REMEMBER THE DAY I FIRST MET TRAVIS,
DURING OUR WINTER ALL-HANDS IN DECEMBER
2019. HE WALKED RIGHT UP TO ME, SAT DOWN WITH AN EASY SMILE, AND STARTED A CONVERSATION.

THE MOUSTACHE WAS A WORK OF ART.
I don't think I ever saw him frustrated or impatient, though in many situations he had every right to be.
He'd make a joke about how nuts the situation was and laugh that very specific laugh he had.
YOU COULDN'T HELP BUT LAUGH WITH HIM; it made whatever you were stuck in together somehow easier.

He was kind, thoughtful, fun, talented and humble.
A true lover of nature.
If you knew Travis, then you loved Travis.

At our CN summer party several years ago, there was a moment that I knew that he was going to be an incredible dad. He was sitting on the hammock with my daughter, tumbling a stuffed alligator toy down from the top of the hammock...again, and again, and again...because it delighted her. I can still hear both of their laughter.

A FEW YEARS BACK, A GROUP OF US ATTENDED A WEDDING
AT A SUMMER CAMP IN VERMONT. THE NIGHT OF THE REHEARSAL
DINNER, WE RAIDED THE CAMP'S COSTUME CLOSET. I HAVE A VIVID PICTURE IN MY MIND OF TRAVIS WITH A FULL-LENGTH BLOND WIG, HULK
HOGAN SUNGLASSES, ONE OF HIS CLASSIC LOW-PROFILE HATS, A RON SWANSON MUSTACHE, AND HIS SIGNATURE SMILE.
IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE NOT TO HAVE A GOOD TIME WITH TRAVIS!
